During the last three months Brewers' Union No. 1 received for dues $533.06; the expenditures were $488.87. The cabinet-makers were promised financial aid, if necessary, in their present fight for eight hours. New officers are: John Hecker, Treasurer; Chris Spiegel, Auditor; Charles Pommer, L. Schlueter and E. Dornberg, Delegates to the Harmony Conference. Jacob Huber was renominated as Secretary.

Rose Coghlan was the star at the Grand Opera-House last night, and the play was Dorothy's Dilemma," by no means one of shining gems of Miss Coghlan's reper and quaint attuations, but it is far-fetched POURTEENTE STREET THEATRE. That seemingly admirable example of per-etual youth, known as Lydia Thompson, was at the Fourteenth Street Theatre last night, erch, skittish and interesting as ever. Miss Thompson is always an artist, and she is distinctly worth seeing to-day. She has dis-carded burlesque and adopted the Rosina Vokes style of bill. Three plays were acted Bric-a-Brac" shop. In the last two Miss Thompson appeared to great advantage. The performance pleased the audience.

PROFILE'S THEATHE.

Prof. Herrmann, who has not favored the metropolis very much of late, mystined a large audience at the People's Theatre last night in his own inimitable way. There is no trick done by Herrmann that is not thoroughly artistically manipulated, and this has been the great secret of his success. Herrmann is at his beat in the simple feats with which he generally opens his entertalments. He was assisted by Mme. Herrmann, who aided him very materially in making the programme enjoyable. WINDSOR THEATRE.

The play at the Windsor Theatre last night was the good old favorite called "Uncle Tom's Cabin," that can always draw an audience, if its visits be few and far between. It is some time since we have had "Uncle Tom" in the city, and there was a large audience. It was Webbers company, and little Carrie Webber, who, by the bye, has been "Hitle" for a long time, played the coveted part of Topsy. The jubilee singers sang some admirable selections. The play was realistically staged.

E. S. JACOBS' THRATRE. The pioneer tank play, "A Dark Secret," was the attraction at H. R. Jacob's Theatre last night. The chief attraction, of course, is the Hendy regatta scene, in which the real wet water plays a prominent part. This scene was beautifully staged. The steam launches and other craft that made the picture realistic were greeted with much enthusiasm. George Hosmer, the well-known carsman, who has been associated with "A Dark Secret," for some time, any eared as usual. for some time, appeared as usual NEW PARE THEATRE.

A play called "O'Flynn in Mexico" was rroduced at the New Park Theatre last night. It is described as a comic melodrama, and those who like that idea will do well to see it. It is a comic melodrama, with a wicked uncle and a lovely maiden, who dances a break-flown. The cast included Airred Kelcy, F. Abbott, George Kennedy, Frederick G. Ross, John Casey, George F. Devere, Charles McDonald, James Morton, Austin Walsh, Lilliy La Rose and Annie Douglags.

MUSIC HALL. "The Seven Ages of Our World; or, Fron Chaos to Man" was given for the first time is public at the scientific theatre Urania is the Music Hall last night. It delighted a large audience. The scenes showing the evolution of the world from chaos were beauti mily presented and were received with much applaus. The picture of chaos was admira-ble and would alone be worth seeing. The new site rainment will undoubtedly be as HARLEM OPERA-HOUSE. E. I. Davesport's old play, "St. Marc," was the attraction at the Harlem Opera-House last night, with Joseph Haworth as the star. The play is romantic and interesting, and the qualities that were appreciated in it years ago may be consideratiously appreciated even how. Mr. Haworth as the soldier of fortune did some good work. The role gives him opportunities and he loses none of them. Maida Traisen played the leading feminine role. igen played the leading feminine company was fairly good. COLUMBUS THEATRE.

Villainy was foiled last night at the Columbus Theatre and virtue was triumphant. This is not a new arrangement of stage events, but it is one that seems to be a persecual secessity, and Manager Hammerstein has been giving his patrons many instances of it lately. The play was "The Midnight Alarm," in which the melodramatic situations are secondary only to the mechanical effects. These were displayed in full force, and they seemed to fully satisfy an audience that expected them.

were most enthusiastic. The spectacle called "Columbus Discovering America" was gorgeously presented. It is, perhaps, the best thing of its kinc that the astute Kiralty has ever directed, and its subject seems to appeal strongly to the audience. There is a great demand for books descriptive of the entertainment, which is a boom for history.

TONY PASTOR'S.

The entertainment at Tony Pastor's last night was announced as "strong, bright, new and funny," and the adjectives were entirely appropriate. The periormance was excellent. Those was appeared were Lydia Yeamans, George Murphy, the Silver Beil Quartet, William Jerome, with his songs and parodies; Frank E. McNish, the "graceful and athletic specialist;" Lillie Weston, the Glenroy Brothers, Clark and Williams, James Richmond and Lettle Glenroy, "comedy boomers," and the lady known as Senora Neos Tatall.

Miss Coghlan did good work, as she generally does, and was, in fact, the life, the backbone, the everything of the piece. The cast, on the whole, was good, and the play was well put upon the stage.

Wenzel and Morris, the three Martinetti Brothers, Leopold and Bunnell, Mullely and Mullely, Harry Norman, Kittle Smith and a number of others, appeared upon the stage of Huber's Palace Museum, in East Fourteenth street, yesterday. In the curto halls were Samson, the strong man; bufrane, another strong man; the Norton Brothers, aerialists; Col. Shields and Annie O'Brien, Annie Leak-Thompson, Prof. Kreiger, Me and Illin, George Kartaragn, Clio, Fiji Jim and Annie, and Nergt. Schorf.

DORIS'S MUSEUM. DOMA'S MURRUM.

The Fanny Herring Dramatic Company presented "The Bandit Meronant of Genoa" in Theatre No. 1 of Doris's Kighth Avenue Susum yesterday. There were large and decidedly appreciative audiences, for Fanny Herring is still able to pleasy a portion of the theatre-going public. In Theatre No. 2 was venetta and Adams's Vaudeville Company, and in Theatre No. 3 the Frumont Comedy Company. The curio halis revealed Jo-Jo, the dog-faced boy, and a number of other features.

KOSTER AND BIAL'S. Mile. Marie Pacra is coming to the end of her engagement at Roster & Bial's concert hall. She appeared there again last night, and will continue to make herself heard until the end of the week. Pacra is not beautiful, but she has a certain magnetism of her own. Carmeneits danced, the Spanish students did their usual work, the "Fra Diavolo" travesty was continued, and the vaudeville programme was made interesting by John Leclair, Cain and Loreno, and others.

worth's MURRUM.

The "Come-and-See-Me-at-It" dance by the Guatemaian bailet dancer Neyo at Worth's yesterday was an entertaining piece of buriesque. The ant-bears are still attracting much attention at this house. They are strange animals. Wood & Beasley made music and fun in the theatre and caused a deal of laughter. The other stage performers, singers, dancers and comedians, were good.

Hall and Fitzsimmons May Sign To-Day for a Fight.

Aquatics Prominent in the Summer Athletic Programmes.

For more than a year Pugilists Jim Hall and Bob Fitzsimmons have made a great deal of talk relative to the arrangement of a match to meet each other in the fing. Each has all the other out in New Zestand, and how easily would only meet him in a fight to a finish. They did sign articles to fight before the Twin City Club at Minneapolis over a twelve-month ago, but the authorities broke up the game and the war of words has continued to the present time. Both men are now in this city knocking verbal chips from each other's shoulders Each seems fairly spoiling for a fight. Jimmy Carroll, however, has a firm grip on Fitz's collar and Parson Davies is holding down

During the last forty-eight hours Fitzsim mons has swung clear of his anchor chains, and now declares that he will fight Hall at his own weight, 164 pounds. The men have agreed to meet to-day to arrange terms for an encounter in the ring in the near future. The Fitzsimmons side designates the Olym pic or California Athletic clubs as its choice of a battle-ground. The Coney Island Ath-letic Club will make a strong effort to bave the fight pulled off there.

Sporting men about town are pretty evenly divided in opinion as to whether Hall and Fitzsimmons will make a match at this time It is safe to prophesy that they will not comto terms without considerable verbal sparring. They are not bound together by the st endearing ties of friendship and the negotiations are quite likely to resemble an counter of flint and steel.

Those sports who journeyed over to Wood's Hall, Jersey City, last night saw a very creditable boxing performance under the direction of the Lorillard Athletic Club. The first special bout was between the seventyounders, E. Walker, Hanover A. C., and . Kelly, of the Lorillard A. C. After three rounds of hard fighting Kelly won.

Farrell and Foy pounded each other about in a lively manner, Farrell winning.

The event of the evening was a contest for the 110-pound championship of New Jerrey.

J. Bateman, of the Lorillards, and P. Kearney, of the Actives, were scheduled to meet.

Kearney failed to appear and Eddle Curry, of the Nonparells, was substituted. The men went at each other determinedly. Both were groggy at the end of the third round. The judges inited to agree and Referee Mike Sullivan ordered another round. Bateman got the decision.

Interest increases in the approaching boxing tournament of the Park Athletic Club. April 21 is its date. The main event of the evening will be the meeting of the well-known amateur middle-weight boxers, Nick Callan, of Brooklyn, and Charlie Kammer, of the West Side A. C. This battle will virtually settle the amateur middle-weight championship of America, and the winner, in order to obtain the laurel wreath of victory, will have to make a fierce and game struggle. Five other bouts between well-known boxers will take place the same evening, among the contestants being Jake Pitz, Nike Hughes, Mike Leonard, Christie McManus, Frank Day, Billy Krnst, Billy Ross and Mike Martin.

The Clinton Athletic Club, under the dire The Clinton Athletic Club, under the direction of Charley White, is making a great effort to give a first-class boxing exhibition at the Metropolitan Opera-House April 1d. There will be ten bouts between well-known amateur fighters. It was the intention of the managers to have Sam Kelly, of the West Side A. C., meet Tim Murphy, of the Pastimes. Hughey Boyle, of Elizabeth, has been substituted in Murphy's place.

In speaking of the prospects of the Manhattan Athletic Club in rowing events this year Secretary Hughes said: "We did anticipate building a new boat-house this Spring, but have decided to build a long shed in addition to the present quarters for the accommodation of the shells. Next year we will erect a fine boat-house. One that will compare favorably with any in this vicinity." . . .

The athletic grounds of the New York Athletic Club at Travers Island are being put in excellent condition for the summer's work. The Club people expect that the annual spring outdoor games will be far ahead of any yet held at the Club's summer home.

The Xavier Athletic Club has sever men in training for track events. The Xaviers are doing most of their preliminary work by running cross-country.
